

A round cake is the central focus, resting on a white lace doily. It is decorated with a ring of sliced strawberries around the perimeter, a layer of green kiwi slices, and a central cluster of various fruits including strawberries, blackberries, blueberries, and orange segments. In the background, four white candles are lit in a black holder. To the right, a small framed note sits on a wooden easel. The scene is set on a dark surface, possibly a table.
